HAIKU Mirror

On HAIKU you will see reflected the best of you, as bamboo is considered in traditional Chinese culture to represent many qualities such as uprightness and tenacity. Although bamboo is not physically strong, it grows quickly in forests such as Haiku Forest of Maui, Hawaii, being an important source for food and building materials for many centuries. This copper ring of bamboo is the perfect complement to put above a sideboard and bring with it integrity, elegance and simplicity

Materials: Copper leaf

IRIS Mirror

IRIS is a Greek goddess of the rainbow, messenger of gods, makes the connection between heaven and earth, between gods and humans. IRIS is also the name of the colored part of the eye that is more changeable and controls our perception about light, shapes and colors. The IRIS mirror reflects all this, working as a representation and a link capable to transport us to a unique set of emotions that includes a true contemplation of nature, enhanced through ebony veneer, details of gold leaf and the gloss beige lacquered, which reminds the wings of the goddess IRIS.

Materials: Beige high gloss lacquer, high gloss palisander golden leaf, high gloss golden leaf convex mirror.

KAAMOS Mirror

The Arctic Circle, when the sun is below the horizon for a long period. KAAMOS mirror embodies the ambiguity of this natural phenomenon: while in some regions you may experience total darkness, in others you will face a twilight due to the refraction. The matte walnut root veneer contrasts and intersects with the brass and copper leaf, which are then reflected in the round mirror.

CANYON Screen

The Grand Canyon is located in the United States of America and it is one of the seven natural wonders of the world. Its valley was shaped by the Colorado River over thousands of years, while waters have been exposing the different layers that, once mixed, create a landscape with unique and beautiful colours. CANYON screen incorporates the beauty of this landscape through its brass finishes layers, bordered with aged gold nails. The different tones are given by applying an aged patina, brown patina and red patina on the brass surface. CANYON is the ideal screen for living rooms, completing a contemporary home decor by bringing nature's beauty and versatility indoors.

Materials: Structure in wood covered with brass with aged patina, brass with brown patina and brass with red patina.
Nails aged gold

DELPHI Screen

Back to a world of magic and wonder, where the ancient world's most famous oracle prophesied the futures of kings and countries. DELPHI, the holiest site of ancient Greece, is recreated in this screen to bring oracle to life through its bird's eye root veneer and elm root veneer. Recalling traditional techniques to DELPHI screen using hammered brass, gives the dramatic and strong finish to it, making your living room a true desirable environment to disclose.

Materials: Structure in brass ; Panels in bird's eye wood veneer, elm root wood veneer and brass aged patina ;

HANOI Wall Screen Divider

Cubic forms have long been incorporated in architecture: since ancient times, and now in cosmopolitan cities such as Hong Kong, Singapore and Dubai, buildings with this geometrical shape can be seen as well. This shape gives to the cities a modern feel that can be brought to the interiors as well. You can achieve that by including a wall screen

KOI Screen

KOI carp is a recurring symbol of Japanese culture, highly appreciated by its decorative purposes, not only in water gardens but also in Irezumi practice or, most commonly, in tattoos. Its natural colour mutations reveal their capacity to adapt, just like the KOI screen that you can use to create a better sense of space division in your ambiances. The KOI scales that compose the panels of the screen shine and reflect – on its brass surface – the sun caught throughout the clear water. KOI and the Japanese word for love or affection are homophones, making the carp also a symbol of love and friendship.

Materials: Brushed aged brass.

Bookcases & Cabinets

HOPLON Bookcase

HOPLON is the strength of human soul, the fierce of the warriors. Composed by brass and leather, this unique shelving is inspired by the powerful structure of Spartan warriors. Spartans were highly organized and their army was almost untouchable. In every warrior's soul there was the idea that he should return home carrying his hoplon, the golden shield, symbol of a winning battle. HOPLON shelving represents the strength through organization, the strong structure that fits in your spaces needs.

CAMARGUE aka CAVA - LONNY | Digital Art

A fragment of the movement of an ancient breed of horses – the Camargue – is depicted in this Digital Artwork as a symbol of strength, lightness, and agility, a true force of nature found in the most pure wildness. Overlapping frames capture the freedom of this almost intangible white horse and give you a sense of tridimensionality from the optical illusion it creates. CAVA - LONNY is part of a set of 4 digital artworks interpreting the forces of nature.

ERUPTION Digital Art

Unpredictable, explosive and dangerous. By a suddenly release of energy it can create and destroy what nothing else on Earth can do. Its alluring danger and its burning flourish are a wild call for a man that dares himself to stride until there. ERUPTION Digital Art does not describes a volcano. Although it's essence can be found on the elusive smoothness of ERUPTION Digital Art.

FAUVE | Art

At first sight you might see an abstract painting, but as you go further away from it, you will glimpse a portrait of a recognizable object, depicted in a rough and emotional way. It's a fragmented moment defying the processes of human vision, such as depth perception and optical illusion. FAUVE explores the plasticity of the materials, such as the texture of the canvas, the hand-gesture imprinted with the paint, and the tridimensionality with the usage of nails.

FRONTIER Digital Art

A line that divides time and space. A hazy aerial vision that seeds the doubt between what is the present and what is the past. What is destruction and what is existence. But the line prevails, reminding us how easy it is to establish a frontier, even without a clear vision. That is the feeling that FRONTIER Digital Art reflects. Unclear visions establish limited frontiers only by looking down.

CUZCO Rug

Cuzco, currently a city in southeastern Peru, was formerly the historic capital of the Inca Empire, the largest empire in pre-Columbian America. CUZCO rectangular rug was inspired in the motifs used in the Inca textiles, known by the combination of different geometric patterns, all combined into one piece, like a patchwork. CUZCO rug is made in hand tufted dyed wool and depicts a simplification of these patterns into different stripes of geometric shapes and lines, resulting in a sober but rhythmic composition in sandy tones. This ethnic rectangular rug fits well in an eclectic living room or dining room. It can be made to measure and with different colours and shapes, to better fit every space.

ENZ Rug

Enz River runs through the northern Black Forest in Germany which is considered to have the most attractive landscapes for nature lovers, ramblers and mountain bikers, due to the diversity of rivers, mountains, valleys and paths. ENZ rectangular rug is made in hand-tufted tencel and was inspired by the breathtaking richness of the Black Forest and its natural resources. The dark grey tones in irregular and sharp shapes depict the different feelings one can experience close to a river in the forest: the trees' shadows, the leaves on the ground, the sound of the running water, the surface of the mountains, the silhouette of the tree branches. This dark grey rectangular rug fits well in a contemporary living room or dining room. It can be made to measure and with different colours and shapes, to better fit every space.

Under the Eurasian plate lies the highest and the widest sub-aerial active volcano in Europe and Mediterranean Area: the Etna. It has erupted many times in Human History, intensely and persistently, especially under Greek and Roman classic times, when myths and legends have been destroyed, forgotten or just hidden to be found years after by archaeologists. ETNA rectangular rug is named after this persistent volcano: a hand tufted tencel rug that mixes different neutral tones with slight notes of light blue in irregular shapes. The rough pattern depicts a sense of unveiling a mysterious past, hidden by the effect of the dense ashes. ETNA rug fits well every eclectic or contemporary living room. It can be made to measure and with different colours and shapes, to better fit every space.
